LORCA
Poético

Mauricio Lorca Poetic wines express its main philosophy, which is inspired in the fruit and terroir strength. These wines have their origins in vineyards from Los Altepes estate, located in the prestigious region of Uco Valley, 1250 meters above sea level, where this terroir meets a triple alliance: soil – climate – quality, achieving its maximum expression.

(100% Malbec)

Los Altepes - Los Árboles, Tunuyán, Alto Valle de Uco, Mendoza, Argentina 1.250 meters above sea level. High Density Vineyard.

Hand picking bins of 18 kilograms capacity, between the months of March and April, with a careful selection of grapes. 90% french oak aging and 10% american oak aging for 12 months.

In sight, elegant and deep violet red. In the nose, it unfolds an aromatic flow that immediately reveals the goodness of the variety, mainly due to its fruity notes, also some spices and mint touches can be noticed. In the mouth is kind, as well as structured and balanced. Once again fruity notes are highlighted, being a delicate and complex Malbec, with a very nice finish.

Ideal to enjoy dishes of grilled and smoked red meat, well-seasoned fish, grilled vegetables, stews, empanadas and pasta with intense flavor sauces. It may also be combined with desserts that have chocolate based preparations.

We suggest serving between 14° and 18° C.
